Robert Dugan Appointed to Council

Acting Public Printer Joseph E. Jenifer has recently appointed Robert Dugan to a two-year term on the Depository Library Council to the Public Printer. Mr. Dugan is currently a Research Associate with the U.S. National Commission on Libraries and Information Science (NCLIS) in Washington, DC. Prior to working for the Federal government, Mr. Dugan was Head of Library Development for the Massachusetts Board of Library Commissioners, the state agency responsible for statewide planning, data compilation and analysis, and the expenditure of federal and state funds for local library projects. Mr. Dugan has also been a public library director, and has administered a public library reference department. Publications include articles on library automation, statistics, and cost accounting. He has masters degrees in library science and public administration.

Discount Air Fares Available for Fall Council Meeting

Discount air fares are available to anyone who plans to attend the Fall 1989 meeting of the Depository Library Council in Rosslyn, Virginia, October 18-20.

American Airlines (AA) is offering a 40 percent discount off the regular round trip fare, subject to certain conditions and availability. In addition, there is a 5 percent discount off the lowest air fare AA offers, to include SuperSavers. This also applies to first class travel.

Tickets must be purchased at least seven days in advance.

When booking, call toll free 1-800-433-1790 and specify Code STAR 07ZORK.

Other airlines may also offer discounts, so please check around or call your travel agent for the best fare.
